MENOTTES DINH VAN COLLECTION.

As the spirit of togetherness flourishes during the festive season, the famous Menottes dinh van transcends time, perfectly embodying the House's timeless, contemporary jewelry. Symbolizing an eternal bond between two individuals, this piece was inspired by a key and later a keychain in 1976, initially serving as a prominent necklace clasp. It is now available in rings, earrings and bracelets, with a resolutely contemporary appeal.

LE CUBE DIAMANT COLLECTION.

Le Cube Diamant collection brings to life two essential geometric shapes: a circle and a square. Drawing inspiration from a play on contrasts between the soft roundness of a diamond, a sign of spirituality, and the quadrature of a ring as a symbol of stability, Le Cube Diamant collection showcases the importance of shape in the inimitable dinh van design.

MAILLON COLLECTION.

In jewelry, a link is first and foremost considered as an element for assembly. However, in 1968, Jean Dinh Van chose to give the link a very special distinction, reworking it by hand into a never-before-seen shape, a rectangular form softened at the corners: the first link with a square cross-section.

With its finely chiseled details, intricate open work shapes and diamonds studded in rhythmic steps, the design of the Pulse line embodies a unisex aesthetic that faithfully honors dinh van's original vision.

ABOUT DINH VAN

In 1965, guided by instinct, Jean Dinh Van created a jewelry brand that defied all expectations. An iconoclast by nature, he crafted metal pieces with his hands like a sculptor, driven by his creative impulse. Jean Dinh Van's vision was simple: crafting jewelry deeply rooted in design, accessible to all, that can be worn with everything, anywhere, anytime. Jewelry that transcends the conventions of Place Vendôme by transforming everyday objects into wearable art.
