Isabelle de Borchgrave
presents

Œuvres récentes

After the success of Miradas de Mujeres at the Royal Museums of Fine Arts, Isabelle de Borchgrave presents a new exhibition of her most recent works.

Pleated paper paintings, hand-painted glass tables, bronze furniture, light fixtures or even paper sculptures, Isabelle reminds us that her work isn't only for museums!

Bursts of colours, textures and materials; her vision of the world comes in a thousand facets like a colourful kaleidoscope that she joyfully shares with us.

Her latest creations will be presented at her home & studio on Chaussée de Vleurgat from October 20 until December 16; The opportunity to (re-) discover the unique universe she created in the heart of the city: a hidden gem in a garden of Eden.
