Best General Manager of an Independent Hotel in the World !

Marrakech – July 22nd, 2021, 10.34 am

The long-awaited and excellent news came , a surprise and then a joy that explodes everywhere in the corridors of the Palace La Mamounia : its General Manager Pierre Jochem has just been elected Best General Manager of an Independent Hotel in the World!

The kind of feeling of PRIDE that one lives only once in a hotelier life ...

Pierre Jochem known and recognized for his great professionalism, his legendary discretion and his outspokenness, distinguished by his peers, has just etched his name on the highly- coveted list of the best GM's of the world.

He thus inscribes with him the names of the hotels and the people who worked with him because Pierre Jochem is also and above all a captain for whom team spirit, loyalty go hand in hand with excellence and hard work.

And it is thanks to his consistency that he has been able to lead all his different teams to the heights of excellence. After houses such as Hyatt, Peninsula, Oberoi, Four Seasons or Raffles it is at La Mamounia that he has held his position since 2013.

He always had this exceptional capacity to federate his teams and his hierarchy thanks to his personality and his great visionary ideas... at La Mamounia, he wrote a new page in its history preserving this tradition of excellence and authenticity so intrinsically linked to this institution.

Immeasurable pride for the 650 people who work under his command with passion ...

To the question what is the secret behind the success story of La Mamounia, Pierre Jochem answered: "For me, it's them!" ...
